Wednesday, February 21, 2018

6:30 to 8 PM at Auburn Career Center in Concord, Ohio

Lately it has been hard to miss articles about how Facebook and Twitter are targeting conservative voices, examples are Here and Here. This is a very serious threat to our liberty, and Scott will give us the background, current status and some ways we may overcome this menace to free thought. Come join us for a very interesting and educational event which will make you think. Please register at LCLC February 2018 Eventbrite Link!!

Biography:

Scott Andrews is the founder of a social media marketing company and operates an apparel and watchmaking workshop. Scott believes in revitalizing America's communities and raising future American citizen leaders through the Christian faith and the founding principles of the United States of America. He does this by focusing on faith-based initiatives, businesses operating on free-market principles and organizations championing the original intention and design of the country set forth by the Declaration of Independence, the U.S. Constitution, and the Bill of Rights.

His successful companies has created jobs and helps grow a number of small businesses as he supports Christian evangelical and Citizen-Leader causes. Most recently he volunteered at Liberty Camp Geauga 2017 where he led and performed the marketing initiatives, and has been a Precinct member of the Geauga County GOP for two terms. His work and principles have garnered him a country-wide and global network of similar-minded leaders championing the cause of Liberty and the pursuit of a good life with ordered freedom.
