

(Saturday, January 19th, 2019 from 10 to 1pm)

Attention: Kind, Caring, Good-Hearted Volunteers...

Looking for an opportunity to help others in your community? See what the Volunteer Fair has to offer.

We are inviting all organizations that are run by volunteers. Find and learn about opportunities to help others in your community and MAKE A DIFFERENCE. Talk to representatives from the following organizations at the Volunteer Fair:

Willoughby-Eastlake Public Library, Lake County Council on Aging
Operation S.T.A.T (Supporting Veterans), Lifeline Inc.
American Red Cross, United Way Lake County
Asa's Angels, Lake County Board of DD/Deepwood
Alzheimer's Association, Lake Metroparks
American Cancer Society, Amy's Adoptables (911 Dog Rescue, Inc))
Eastlake Women's Club, Celebrate Recovery
Ohio Living Home Health & Hospice, Willowick Pet Food Pantry
Willoughby Lakefront Business Association; Habitat for Humanity-Restore
Grace Hospice-Mentor

Volunteer Organizations can create greater public awareness of their mission. Register Your Organization for a FREE Table. Nominate an individual that has devoted their time, talent, and effort to worthy causes to be recognized at the Volunteer Fair.

Location: Harvest Bible Chapel 34525 Melinz Pkwy Eastlake, Ohio 44095

*please email form to: mikezuren@eastlakeohio.com Questions: please contact: City of Eastlake Councilman Michael Zuren, PhD. 440-251-5381 or ECDC Member Angela Schmidt 440-571-2356

