

Ohio Constitution

Study Group

First Meeting

When: Thursday, December 9th, 2021

Time: 6:30 PM

Where: Claridon Township Admin Building

Additional meetings begin January 12, 2022 and continue every other week up to March 10, 2022

Purpose:

For a Citizen review and understanding of the Constitution for the State of Ohio and being able to hold the elected accountable to the Constitution as well as having a Citizens view of the Ohio Revised Code and The Ohio Administrative Code in relationship to the Ohio Constitution.

To facilitate the imbuing of citizen knowledge for activism that ensures reasonable and responsible governance by the elected and bureaucrats.

What it is:

This is a survey of the Ohio Constitution. As a Study Group, those participating will be encouraged to delve into the various Article of the Ohio Constitution for mutual clarification of that which establishes the 'rule of law' in Ohio. Participants will be challenged regarding the Preamble, their Article I Rights and the what, why and results of the amendments specific to the 1970's as well as amendments that occurred in the 2000's.

What it is NOT:

- The Study Group is not the class being developed on the Ohio Constitution by the Institute On the Constitution (IOTC).
- The Study Group is not a lecture series on the Ohio Constitution.
- The Study Group is not a course on law or legal parlance.

Suggested Text:

Ohio State Constitution will be provided to those who do not acquire one via the Ohio Secretary of State office.

PDF version: <https://www.ohiosos.gov/globalassets/publications/election/constitution.pdf>

Call for hard copy: (614) 466-2655 or (877) SOS-Ohio (877-767-6446). Follow the phone tree to request the number of copies you want.

Webster 1828 Dictionary on line: <http://www.webstersdictionary1828.com/>

Contact:

Tom Niewulis email: tom@samueladamsreturns.com