Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4d	Crossroads Day Treatment Program DT operates in collaboration with the Lake County Educational Service Center ESC, offering both a therapeutic milieu and specialized educational services to children and youth with severe emotional disturbance or mental disorders. Client sare typically on-site for about 6 hours each day, participating in a variety of treatmen tactivities and receiving academic instruction in highly structured, supportive classrooms. Parent engagement is a critical component of DTs effectiveness. The Programs goals are to help clients avoid hospitalization and out-of-home placement, reduce their aggressive behaviors, and discharge them to a less restrictive treatment and academic environment. During the year ended June 30, 2019, 73 clients participated in DT.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d	Early Head Start Crossroads federally-funded Early Head Start EHS program serves pregnant women, expectant fathers, infants, toddlers to age three, and their families EHS promotes healthy family functioning, self-sufficiency, and healthy child development. In weekly visits to families homes, Home Visitors provide comprehensive child development services including screenings and assessments to monitor childrens development and identify any developmental concerns they also provide resources and support to help families enhance parenting skills, and to promote the development of school readiness in children from birth to three years of age. Families are linked to vital medical and dental services and other community resources. During our fiscal year ending June 30, 2019 we served a total of 115 children from 88 families. We have significant participation of racial/ethnic minorities, including many Hispanic families. Bilingual program staff and printed program materials in Spanish have been critical to the programs success. EHS is the cornerstone of Crossroads comprehensive array of Early Childhood Behavioral Health Services.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4d	Pharmacologic Management provides psychiatric evaluation, prescription of psychotropic med ications and ongoing medication management for children and adolescents with emotional dis turbances or mental disorders. Pharmacological management helps our clients reduce, stabli ze and/or eliminate psychiatric symptoms and improve their overall functioning. Educating clients and family members about the purpose, risks, benefits and side effects of their medications is an important element. Our psychiatrists and advanced-practice nurses carefullly consider clients medical history and physical health, current medications, drug allergies and substance use in their prescribing decisions. Because of their rapid physical, emotional and cognitive development, and the complexity and subtlety of diagnosing and medicating children, we monitor our clients closely our practice is for prescribers to see their clients at least every 90 days. During our fiscal year ending June 30, 2019, 868 clients received Pharmacological Management services.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d	Services for Substance Use Disorders begin with an assessment to diagnose a young persons substance abuse or dependence and determine the appropriate level of care to meet their ne eds. Treatment services consist of individual, family and group counseling based on client needs, treatment ranges from weekly or monthly individual and family sessions to our Inten sive Outpatient IOP level of care - a minimum of eight hours of treatment activities over at least three days each week. Because our program is abstinence-based, clients key treatment tasks include developing skills and strategies for maintaining clean and sober lifesty les, and understanding and interrupting the relapse process. Education and counseling for family members focuses on how they are impacted by - and can enable - the addiction proces is is essential to young peoples success in treatment. Case management is an important element of our program, and includes support and assistance for clients in gaining access to needed services such as medical care, educational resources and recreational opportunities for sober fun. During our fiscal year ending June 30, 2019, 132 clients received services for substance use disorders.
