Notes and resources on trans-identity issue

 Dr. Miriam Grossman: "They took those kids and put them on puberty blockers at age 12 and those puberty blockers had never been used before for that purpose and, to this day, puberty blockers are not licensed or FDA-approved in any country to be used with gender dysphoria. They are only approved for other uses..."

Nov. 2022, WallBuilders Conference in Texas: Dr. Quention Van Meter, president of the American College of Pediatrician, presented on the topic of transgenderism and told of his personal experience with Dr. Money (taught for 50 years at Johns Hopkins). In his remarks he totally discredited Money and the fake associations that are promoting transgenderism, surgeries, etc.
